School Backpack Program

Through the Backpack Program, at the end of the week these children are provided with a bag containing two breakfasts, two lunches and two snacks to ensure they have access to healthy foods over the weekend. This program has been proven to help the children return to school nourished and ready to learn. Contact your child’s school counselor or family advocate to participate.

Food and Nutrition Services

Food Bank of the Albemarle calls its Food and Nutrition Services Outreach Program, “FNS Outreach”. The Food and Nutrition Services Program has expanded eligibility requirements and increased deductions, allowing more North Carolinians to benefit from extra food dollars, which in turn allows them to stretch their food budgets and put three balanced meals on their tables daily. To receive Food and Nutrition Services, you need to meet certain income and other guidelines. Current income guidelines: <https://afoodbank.org/get-help/food-and-nutrition-services/>

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

Food and Nutrition Services (FNS) is the new name for the Food Stamp Program in North Carolina. The Food and Nutrition Services Program has expanded eligibility requirements and increased deductions, allowing more North Carolinians to benefit from extra food dollars, which in turn allows them to stretch their food budgets and put three balanced meals on their tables daily.
